Great River Homes

613 Circle Drive

December Newsletter

Season's Greetings from the Enchanting Ladies! As we wrap ourselves in the magical glow of the holiday season, let's take a peek into the heartwarming moments our lovely ladies shared during this festive time.

Jenny's holiday break sparkled with family joy. From sharing laughter and giggles over Christmas movies to receiving a delightful card and candy at work, Jenny's season started with a twinkle. The card, adorned with a $50 Visa card bonus and a sweet sucker, brought an extra dose of merriment. Diamond art sessions at the kitchen table and cozy evenings watching Christmas movies set the perfect festive tone. A delightful call to Staff's husband, Brandon, filled her heart with joy, and the laughter echoed through the phone. Movie magic continued with a trip to CMX Cinema for the new Trolls movie, and a visit to the Dollar General resulted in a special anniversary gift for her parents. Taco Bell added flavor to her evening, while the Christmas dance in Red Wing, a school concert with her niece and nephew, and a retirement party on 12th St made her holidays truly memorable. The month concluded with a creative porch pot session and cherished moments with staff and her grandkid.

Paige's festive adventures were a blend of family warmth and shared moments. Supper at Culver's in Red Wing kicked off her holiday break, followed by a lively bowling night with a friend and pizza delights. The dance at Red Wing HS brought tired but joyful feet, and a retirement party at 12th St added to the festive spirit. Paige's creative side flourished with a cookie baking day at another GRH house, while the allure of the new Trolls movie drew her to CMX Cinema. Lunch at home and a heartwarming chat with her dad added a personal touch to her holidays, expressing a desire to revisit the cinema with a friend for more fun.

Katy's holiday season unfolded in a melodic symphony of family time and festive activities. A Taco Bell dinner and dancing at the Christmas event in Red Wing set the tone for a joyful evening. Katy contributed her creative touch to Christmas crafts and movie nights, assisting in baking a cake and sharing cozy moments with staff and housemates. A picture-perfect moment at the central office for a newspaper photo and a snack-filled evening at Culver’s in Red Wing added to the festive flavor.

Before embarking on a long holiday break with her family, KayRine added her unique charm to the festive season. A Nut-cracker outing in Rochester, MN, kicked off her December. From Christmas crafts and porch pot making to a delightful cookie baking day at another house, KayRine spread festive joy. Her helpful spirit shone through at a retirement party on 12th St, a Trolls movie night at CMX Cinema, and a heartwarming family arrival for a North Dakota holiday break.

COMET

JUICY
BURGER